

WHY CHOOSE US?

Here are a few of the things we do to ensure that your experience working with us will be enjoyable...

- We listen to your ideas, learn about your needs, and plan within your budget.
- We do not charge for consultation or follow-up appointments. We feel it is our job to help you make the right decisions, regardless of how much time it takes or the number of appointments it requires.
- We are experienced in the workroom—we have detailed knowledge of how things should be made and what works. Our high-end fabrication techniques, combined with the highest quality linings available, ensure that your new soft home furnishings will last for years to come.
- We provide design renderings for your soft window coverings. Our illustrations can help you decide between different designs or give you added confidence that the design you select fits your vision.
- We have extensive fabric lines and hardware options available to you. We spend the extra time needed to find the best materials suited for your project's design and budget.
- We pay particular attention to proportion, style and design to ensure that your new furnishings are complementary to both your home's architectural style and your personal taste.
- We provide weekly email status updates throughout the whole process. You'll know when your fabric arrives at the workroom and receive confirmation that your project is underway. Our excellent communication ensures you that we are diligently monitoring your project's status from start to finish.
- We are present at all installations to assist and direct our professional installers. Not only does this make our installations smoother, it also ensures that any issues are addressed immediately and efficiently.
